

Strategy and timeline:

The process to establish an IDG Center involves a structured pathway including pre-application data collection, stakeholder mapping, and collaboration with aligned organisations, as well as the drafting of a comprehensive strategy for setting up the centre. Once an organisation has studied the feasibility of the IDG Center in its local environment and has filled all the needed criteria, it is invited to express interest and submit an application (link to the application will be available soon).

